2. Given below are the details of Ajay's experience when he went to the bank to open up an account. Read the details and answer the questions.

I went to a bank as I wanted to open up an account. I had never been to the bank ever in my life and was a bit nervous. And I had no idea of banking. I entered the bank and words like credit, debit, accountant, statements, passbooks, cheque books, etc, stared at me. I spotted a man and asked him where I could find the bank manager. The man guided me through a room full of wickets to a spacious room towards one corner. It was the manager's office. A tall man came out of the strong room which had many vaults. The manager was a very helpful person and explained the entire procedure for opening a bank account and also explained about the home loans that I had enquired about. He told me that their bank was offering the lowest interest rate on home loans.

The manager called out Mr Sharma to help me finish up the formalities. Mr Sharma was the customer care executive and very helpful indeed. He made me sign up on a form and then handed me an envelop that contained a golden-coloured debit card and my cheque book. He said that they no longer use the passbooks and I could check my account balance online. I was relieved to learn of the net banking facilities the bank offered as it would save me the trouble of running to the bank for every transaction. I deposited the amount that was I was carrying and also got the draft that my father had asked me to get. It was indeed a great learning experience of my life!

 Owe, mother, don't say neigh!"
 "Go fourth, my sun," the mother said.
 The ant said, "Take ewer slay,
 Your gneiss knew sled awl painted read,
 But dew not lose your weigh."
 "Ah, know," he cried, and sought the street
 With hart sew full of glee—
 The weather changed--and snow and sleet
 And reign, fell steadily.
 Threw snowdrifts grate, threw watery pool,

 He flue with mite and mane—
 Said he, "Though I wood walk by rule,

I am not rite, 't is plane."
"I'd like to meat sum kindly sole,
For hear gnu dangers weight,
And yonder stairs a treacherous whole—
Two sloe has been my gate.
"A peace of bred, a nice hot stake,
I'd chews if I were home,
This crewel fete my hart will brake,
Eye love knot thus to roam.
"I'm week and pail, I've mist my rode,"
But here a carte came past,
He and his sled were safely toad
Back two his home at last.
