Dassera and Bathukamma Celebrations

The pre-primary children enjoyed celebrating Dussehra in school along with their friends as well as teachers on Friday, 27th September. All the children were dressed in their traditional attire to enhance the festival ambience. They brought colourful flowers to decorate. The day was filled with religious fervour. Teachers explained the importance of the festival and how the festival vibes with different traditions followed throughout the 9 days. After that children danced along with their teachers for Bathukamma and had a merry time. The activity with the flower baskets thrilled the children and they had fun sticking the flowers and decorating the baskets and took them home as a token of love from school for the Dussehra festival.

Diwali Celebrations

To mark the celebration of the festival of lights in an enthusiastic way, the pre-primary sections from Pallavi Model School, Boduppal were taken out to see different kinds of wild animals like the lions, tigers, bears and giraffes, An awareness was created about noise and pollution free Diwali. The children were very thrilled to see their teachers dressed as animals. children recited rhymes and songs and they were encouraged to light diyas and say no to crackers. The smiles of children were as bright as diyas and paved the way for a festive mood.

An Educational trip to the Zoo

The children of the PP2 grades as a part of an educational trip and the ISA project went on a visit to the Nehru Zoological park .The children were very excited to see different wild animals like lions, giraffes,tigers, white tigers, cheetahs&monkeys.The children even enjoyed the train ride . The butterfly park was an added attraction in the trip where the children saw of butterflies many colours of The children were excited to see the extinct specimens of reptiles at the museum. They also saw the replicas of different wild animals that are extinct like bison, wild buffalo etc. The jungle cats attracted the children the most.

Fancy Dress Competition

A fancy dress competition was held by the pre-primary wing. The theme was 'wild animals' and it was a part of one of our ISA projects. The children dressed themselves as different wild animals like tiger, panda, lion, elephant, giraffe, etc. The children looked amazing in their unique costumes. The judges were happy to see the little ones performing on the dais with no stage fear whatsoever. The parents were invited to witness the performance of their wards. As a finale, the prizes were awarded to the children dressed in the best outfits.

Dassera and Bathukamma Celebrations

The upcoming festival of Dassera was celebrated with a lot of pomp and show in the post exam session. A musical skit based on the Ramayana depicted how good triumphs over evil when the Rama in us kills the Ravana in our minds and hearts. A dance ballet portrayed the epic battle of the good over the evil in a fusion of classical and modern dance styles. Songs hailing the Mother Goddess were sung and the ladies of the school celebrated Bathukamma's glory with a lively dance around Bathukamma.

Certificate Distribution

Students of Grade-3 who had participated in the “Up and Down Ball Relay” and the “Dressing up Relay” were given certificates for winning in these games.

Pot Painting Competition

Classes 6,7 and 8 participated in the “Pot Painting Competition” in the competition periods. The children were very excited and enthusiastic about painting the pots and they came up with beautiful and creative art work. They learnt to explore beautiful thoughts and themes with attractive colors and designs.

Diwali Celebration

Students of Pallavi Model School Boduppal celebrated Diwali in school. A small puja was conducted and all of us prayed for the wealth of health, happiness and well-being for one and all. There were beautiful presentations of song and dance, offerings that are very close to the heart of the Mother Lakshmi. The celebrations were enthusiastic and lively. It was a fun-filled and exciting for the students, teachers and staff members. We wish you all a fun-filled and safe Diwali!
